

Grammar Review First- and Second-Declension Nouns and Review of Forms/Chants

Fill out the boxes below, showing all forms of the noun mēnsa, mēnsae and the noun lūdus, lūdī. If you don't know some of these words, you need to go back and study some more. Chant using your eyes and voice. Turn to chapters 3 and 6 to check your work.

First Declension, Feminine

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	mēnsa : table	mēnsae : tables
Genitive	mēnsae : of the table	mēnsārum : of the tables
Dative	mēnsae : to, for the table	mēnsīs : to, for the tables
Accusative	mēnsam : the table	mēnsās : the tables
Ablative	mēnsā : by, with, from the table	mēnsīs : by, with, from the tables

Second Declension, Masculine

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	lūdus : school	lūdī : schools
Genitive	lūdī : of the school	lūdōrum : of the schools
Dative	lūdō : to, for the school	lūdīs : to, for the schools
Accusative	lūdum : school	lūdōs : schools
Ablative	lūdō : by, with, from the school	lūdīs : by, with, from the schools

Sentence Building: Study the sentences in the box, then translate the sentences below.

Magister vigilat.

The teacher guards/keeps watch.

Dominus clāmat.

The master shouts.

Germānus pugnat.

The brother fights.

Filia habitat.

The daughter lives.

Servī dēmōnstrant.

The slaves point out.

Amīca ambulat.

The friend walks.

Lupus vigilat.

The wolf guards/keeps watch.

Oppidum oppugnat.

The town attacks.

Famulus necat.

The servant kills.

Socius mandat.

The ally entrusts.

Puerī ambulat.

The boys walk.

Discipulae errant.

The students wander.